What Does the Chamber Investment Provide?

Organization and opportunity for people who are committed to its excellence.

An organized effort to improve the economic climate in Fairview and the surrounding area.

An opportunity to be active in your particular area of interest via Chamber committees.

Marketing, networking, and advertising opportunities through Chamber events and publications, and on our website www.fairviewokchamber.com

Events and activities that promote business opportunities and generally enhance the quality of life.

The support of hundreds of working volunteers who confront problems and create opportunities.

Development and promotion of the tourism industry. The chamber serves as the tourism center for Major County.

An effective lobbying effort with the hosting of the annual Legislative Breakfast. Information about key legislative issues. Legislative representation on the Small Business Commission.

A support system that responds to a heavy volume of inquiries about local businesses and other items about the Fairview area.

Welcoming new businesses through ribbon cuttings and ground breaking ceremonies.

A way to address and improve many factors that affect our local economy, such as education, infrastructure, transportation, and governmental affairs.

Committee representation for large segments of our community, such as agriculture, commerce, oil & gas, and governmental affairs.

Networking with other organizations involved in economic development.
